STATEMENT OF CONDUCT: Interaction with different cultures demands sensitivity. Also, the integrity of our testimony as a Christian ministry must be maintained. Participants are expected to abstain from using alcohol, tobacco, illegal drugs, foul language (including misusing God's name), and inappropriate relationships for the entire duration of the trip. They also should refrain from any activities deemed inappropriate by a team director, including visiting night clubs, casinos and bars for the duration of the trip. Volunteers are expected to observe local dress codes as outlined in the information that will be made available to you.

Waiver of responsibility, and assumption of risk: I, _____, hereby acknowledge the inherent risk of travel and the fact that injury, death, disease, might occur during or as a result of my voluntary service on a mission project, and fully understanding that the risks associated with such service may include, but are not limited to, injury or death by accident, disease, terrorist acts, adverse weather conditions and inadequate medical care, and/or damage to, or loss of, personal property. I, in consideration of the benefits derived from being accepted for service, hereby volunteer my services despite such hazards. I willingly assume these risks and I hereby waive any and all claims against the participating organizations as well as the sponsoring institutions, their officers and employees, and the leaders of the Uxbridge Baptist church, for any and all causes in connection with the activities of the above organizations and individuals on the Women to Women Mission trip.
