

The Gospel of Luke

This is the Life:

Embracing the Identity of Jesus and Ours in Him.

In the World, Not of the World (part 1) based on Luke 6:20-26 ESV

Ice Breaker Questions

1) If you won a million dollars, what's the first thing you'd do?

About You Questions

1) Did anything stand out to you about the sermon?

2) So far, we have covered 6 chapters of the book of Luke. What is something that most stands out to you from the Gospel of Luke so far. b) Is there something specifically you learned about the life of Jesus that you didn't already know?

3) When you hear the phrase, "you are not of the world," what does this mean to you? b) What ways would you define your own personal life as "not of the world?" c) What temptations do you face to be "of this world?"

4) Read each beatitude one at a time (Luke 6:20-23). How does each Beatitude speak to you personally?

5) In Luke 6:23, we read "Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven; for so their fathers did to the prophets." What are your current thoughts on heaven? What do you think it will be like?

Into the Bible Questions

1) Read the beatitudes in Matthew 5:2-11. How do they differ from what we see in Luke and what significance does this difference create?

2) Who are some people in the Bible that you admire for their act of surrendering? How can walk in their example?

Application Questions

1) Think about the blessings you have been given by God. If the command isn't to give everything you have to the poor but to live in surrender for the glory of God - what does it mean for all the possessions you have? (Try to move from more general comments to specific application)

2) Are there any practical teaching from this sermon that you feel you need to carry forward into application?

In the World, Not of the World (part 1) based on Luke 6:20-26 ESV

Ice Breaker Questions:

1) If you won a million dollars, what's the first thing you'd do?

About You Questions:

1) Did anything stand out to you about the sermon?

2) So far, we have covered 6 chapters of the book of Luke. What is something that most stands out to you from the Gospel of Luke so far. b) Is there something specifically you learned about the life of Jesus that you didn't already know?

3) When you hear the phrase, "you are not of the world," what does this mean to you? b) What ways would you define your own personal life as "not of the world?" c) What temptations do you face to be "of this world?"

4) Read each beatitude one at a time (Luke 6:20-23). How does each Beatitude speak to you personally?

5) In Luke 6:23, we read "Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven; for so their fathers did to the prophets." What are your current thoughts on heaven? What do you think it will be like?

Into the Bible Questions:

1) Read the beatitudes in Matthew 5:2-11. How do they differ from what we see in Luke and what significance does this difference create?

2) Who are some people in the Bible that you admire for their act of surrendering? How can walk in their example?

Application Questions:

1) Think about the blessings you have been given by God. If the command isn't to give everything you have to the poor but to live in surrender for the glory of God - what does it mean for all the possessions you have? (Try to move from more general comments to specific application)

2) Are there any practical teaching from this sermon that you feel you need to carry forward into application?